

30.03.2024, 16:02

Two Serbian Air Force aircraft were sent to intercept an unidentified flying object near the city of Valjevo, 100 km from the capital, the country's Ministry of Defense reported. Soon the target disappeared from the radar screens

Two Serbian Air Force aircraft were sent to intercept an unidentified flying object near the city of Valjevo, 100 km from the capital, the country's Ministry of Defense reported. Soon the target disappeared from the radar screens.

The planes did not detect the object, after which the interceptors returned to their home airfield.